

I'm very disturbed that you are considering lifting the cross-ownership ban. It is already nearly impossible to get anything other than the same three stories repeated endlessly during a media day. Don't you have any interest in preserving American values of free press and information? Obviously, further consolidation dumbs down an already dumb situation. As a representative of public interest, please to not allow further consolidation of media outlets.

Rose Najia